

Have you met Henri Hippo?

 Ulster Bank

The urfirst Account that kids will just love

Welcome back Henri

That's right, it's time to say welcome back to the lovable Hippo who personified savings for a whole generation of kids. He's still as cute as ever – and he's the perfect way to introduce today's kids to the savings habit.

Teach them while they're young – they'll appreciate it for life

If you get kids into the savings habit when they're young, you'll give them a gift for life. Because once they've got the habit they'll soon appreciate how saving some of the money that they get for birthdays, Christmas or life events will allow them to get the things they want. Opening a urfirst Account with Henri Hippo is the first step in their savings journey.

Let Henri show them how

Whether you're a parent, godparent, relative or friend you can open a urfirst Account for any child under 12 with a deposit of just €5. They'll receive a Henri Hippo Money Box – maybe you had one yourself – so they can save their cash in between trips to the bank. And we'll also have educational, fun games and puzzles for them on www.ulsterbank.ie/henrihippo

Opening an account is easy

All that is required to open a children's savings account is proof of identity and address from yourself and the child you're opening the account for. Please ask any member of our staff to go through the types of identification we need.
